Third Python Project

Download the annual household incomes from FRED for three upper midwestern and three deep southern states using a csv format. Then display the data with a legend. The midwestern numbers should be displayed in blue, the southern numbers in red, but the line-style should vary. Try to find a good place for the legend.